

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	ix
List of Abbreviations	xiii
Prologue	1
Museum Culture	6
The Contours of Secularization	8
Secularizing Sacred Objects	10
Ritual Objects and Art	13
Chapter 1. Entering the Contact Zone	22
From Ritual Objects to Cultural Artifacts	22
Expositions, Subalterns, and the Public Sphere	27
Placing Judaism on Display	30
Chapter 2. Seeding a Seminary Museum	54
“Jewish Ecclesiastical Art”	54
Judaica for a National Museum	62
The Museum of Jewish Ceremonial and Historical Objects	65
Finding an Audience	74
Chapter 3. A New Venue, a New Purpose	92
Reimagining the Museum: Interfaith Dialogue	92
Reimagining the Museum: Cultural History	100
Reimagining the Museum: Modern Jewish Art	103
Art’s Usefulness for Jews	111
Abstraction, Renunciation, Faith	118

Chapter 4. Creating a Way and Space for Avant-Garde Art	136
The Premise of Universality	136
Reshaping the Museum	139
The Art World's 92nd Street Y, New School, and Commentary	146
Inaugurating the List Addition	153
Chapter 5. The Avant-Garde or Judaica?	166
The Nature of a Real Explosion	166
Pursuing a Greater Balance	172
The Museum, the Seminary, and Conservative Judaism	179
Ethnography, History, or Art	182
Chapter 6. Secular Paths through the Avant-Garde, the Lower East Side, and Ancient Israel	191
Reaffirming the Avant-Garde	191
Heritage Rather Than Religion	199
The Lower East Side and Masada	203
Victim of Confusion An Institution Adrift	210
Chapter 7. The Jewish Jewish Museum	222
The Soul Museum	222
Pushing Boundaries: Ethical, Social, Financial	227
Denouement	234
Cultural History, Ethnicity, and Jewish Experience	237
Epilogue	257
Acknowledgments	275
Selected Bibliography	278
Index	297