

CONTENTS

.....

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction. Beyond Endpoints: Rethinking How and Why to Study Radicalisation Hilary Pilkington	1

Part I. Cross-European Perspectives on Trajectories of (Non)Radicalisation

Chapter 1. Non-Radicalisation under a Magnifying Glass: A Cross-European 'Milieu Perspective' on Resistance to Islamist Radical Messaging Mark Dechesne	41
Chapter 2. Situating Trajectories of 'Extreme-Right' (Non)Radicalisation: The Role of the Radical Milieu Hilary Pilkington and Viggo Vestel	65

Part II. Sites and Sources of (Non)Radicalisation

Chapter 3. What Is the Connection between Inequalities and Radicalisation? Reviewing the Evidence Base Renata Franc, Alexandra Poli and Tomislav Pavlović	103
Chapter 4. Islam and Violence in Greek Society: The Stigmatisation of Muslims, the Extreme Right and Resistance to Reciprocal Radicalisation Alexandros Sakellariou	129
Chapter 5. Family, Relatives and Friendship as Channels of (Non)Radicalisation in the Narratives of the Second Urban Generation of North Caucasian Youth Sviatoslav Poliakov	159

Part III. Situational and Interactional Dynamics of (Non)Radicalisation
Chapter 6. Situational and Interactional Dynamics in Trajectories of (Non)Radicalisation: A Micro-Level Analysis of Violence in an 'Extreme-Right' Milieu Hilary Pilkington	185
Chapter 7. Trajectories of (Non)Radicalisation in a French Prison Bartolomeo Conti	217
Chapter 8. Responses to Radical(ising) Messages and Their Messengers by Young Marksmen and Their Clubs: From Rejection to Normalisation Benjamin Kerst	242
Conclusion. Has Radicalisation Research Reached Its Endpoint? Hilary Pilkington	270
Appendix. Overview of Milieus Studied	290
Index	301